

11-04 Protests and Demonstrations

Status: Amended

Issued: 2020.01.03

Replaces: 2016.02.08

Rationale

The purpose of this Procedure is to assist officers in carrying out their function at protests and demonstrations while maintaining a role of complete neutrality.

Supervision

- Supervisory Officer attendance mandatory when a protest or demonstration is in progress.
- Officer in Charge notification mandatory when a protest or demonstration is in progress or is about to take place

Procedure

Citizens have the legal right to demonstrate peacefully. However, they are not entitled to infringe on the rights of land owners in the lawful use and enjoyment of their property. The role of the police at these types of incidents must be one of complete neutrality and action should not be taken until the situation has been carefully assessed. Police officers should only become involved at protests and demonstrations when there is a breach of the peace or a violation of provincial and/or federal law, or when there is strong suspicion that such a breach or violation may occur.

Police Officer
